Comments, complaints and compensation

We value your feedback on the service we provide

For live travel information visit www.merseyrail.org

We welcome your feedback – good and bad – and suggestions.
We would also like to hear if a particular member of staff has provided you with exceptional service.

What to do next

Please fill in this form to give us your feedback or suggestions, or to claim compensation for a delay. If there is not enough space, or you are making more than one claim, you can give more details on a separate sheet. Enclose the relevant tickets with this form.

If you are using this form to claim compensation, you must return it within 28 days of the delay.

If you need help filling in this form, or you would prefer to speak to someone about a problem, phone our Customer Relations Team on 0151 555 1111.

What we will do

We aim to send you a reply or an acknowledgement within five working days of receiving your form, and a full response within 20 days.

Our Passenger Charter sets out our commitments to customers. You can get a copy of the Charter from stations or on our website at www.merseyrail.org.

What we do with your information

We may share your information with a research company the Office of Rail and Road has appointed to make sure complaints are dealt with correctly. They may contact you to ask how your complaint has been dealt with.

If you do not want to be contacted, tick this box.

We will not share your information with anyone else.
